Club Supervision

The Chairman of the House Committee has full authority for the general control and supervision of the Club premises under the direction of the Directors.

Dining Room Supervision

The Club takes pride in its dining room, kitchen, quality of meals and staff service. If at any time a member desires to register a complaint in regard to the operation of the dining room the complaint should be made to the Chairman of the House Committee. Under no consideration should a member reprimand the staff.

Members' Guests

Members are requested to register in the Visitors' Book all guests coming to the Club. Out-of-town guests can be registered and permitted to use the facilities of the Club.

An out-of-town guest may be introduced for a period not exceeding fourteen days at any one time or twenty-eight days in any twelve month period. This period may be extended at the discretion of the Directors. The privileges of such "introduced member" shall be personal only. A member introducing such "introduced member" shall be responsible for any indebtedness the latter may incur and for the observance by such "introduced member" of the rules and regulations of the Club, including his personal conduct and deportment in the Club while enjoying the privileges of an "introduced member."

A member may introduce as luncheon guests or as dinner guests on Club nights persons residing in Saskatoon, and on such occasions such guests shall be entitled to the full use of Club facilities. Persons residing in Saskatoon may also be introduced and accorded the privileges of the Club when that has been arranged by their member host on the occasion of private dinners, afternoon or evening receptions. There is no arrangement whereby local residents may be introduced to the Club on other occasions and have access to the Club's facilities for bridge, billiards, etc., with the sole exception that a member may introduce his father or son at any time. Notwithstanding anything herein contained no such person shall be introduced as a guest on New Year's Day.

Minors in Club

No person under twenty-one years of age shall be entitled to the privileges of the Club unless registered and accompanied by a member.

Reading Room

A reading room is provided for the exclusive use of members, in which current periodicals are supplied. Out of consideration for those members who wish to have "QUIET," you are requested to refrain from loud talking. Periodicals and literature are Club property, and under no consideration are they to be removed from the reading room.

Care of Club Property

We take a pride in the appearance and condition of our Club. Members are requested to share this responsibility to assist the Management in the care and respect of Club property. Please do not throw matches, cigar or cigarette butts on the floor—it makes extra work for the staff and causes damage to the floor and coverings.

Personal Property

Members are requested to leave their hats and coats in the cloakroom provided for this purpose. The Club will not be held responsible for any personal property left on its premises.

Items of value should not be left in the cloakroom, but deposited with the Steward for safekeeping.

Soliciting Subscriptions

No subscriptions, either charitable or otherwise, shall be solicited, advertised, or exhibited for sale on the Club premises, except by full approval of the Directors.

Gratuities

Tipping of the staff is not permitted. We do, however, invite contributions to a Christmas fund to be distributed amongst the members of the staff at that time.

Suggestions

Any member having suggestions to make regarding the service or operation of the Club is requested to do so by depositing same over his signature in a letter addressed to the Club President.

Special Dinners

Reservation for special parties must be made one week in advance. All such functions must be sponsored by a Club member, who himself will be in attendance. A price list for banquets may be obtained from the Club Steward.

Special Service

If and when a member brings wild game, fowl or meat to the Club, to be cooked and consumed on the premises, the regular meal charge will be made for such service.

Card Rooms and Bridge Stakes

1. These rooms are provided for the use of members.

2. All members will pay a fee of ten cents when participating in any bridge game, during each of the playing periods as set out in paragraph three.

3. On every day except Saturday bridge stakes in the Club will be as follows:

Between the hours of 4.00 p.m. and 8.00 p.m. Maximum stakes of one-tenth of one cent a point.

Between the hours of 8.00 p.m. and closing of the Club. Maximum stakes of one-quarter of one cent a point with the option of any lesser stakes if mutually arranged. On Saturdays bridge stakes will be a maximum of one-tenth of one cent a point until 8 p.m.

Between the hours of 12.00 noon and 8.00 p.m. the cut-in rule as mentioned below, will be in effect, but after 8.00 p.m., on all nights including Club nights, the cut-in rule is suspended and cut-in will be by invitation only.

Bridge Rules

4. Except as provided above when more than the number required to make up one or more tables of bridge are present in the card room, those not playing shall be entitled to cut-in after the completion of any rubber until the number playing at a table reaches six, provided that no more than two shall cut in at any one time at any one table. Players may cut into a game in the order of their entry into the card room. Where two or more tables of bridge are in progress a member or members desiring to cut into such games shall do so one at a time if the number does not exceed two.

Any player who declines to exercise his cut-in privilege at any table automatically forfeits his cut-in privilege at that table for the duration of any bridge session.

Poker

All members will pay a fee of ten cents when participating in a poker game.

Billiard Room

Special regulations governing the billiard room are posted therein. Any member not abiding by such posted rules may be requested to discontinue use of the room. Members will pay a fee of ten cents per cue when using the billiard room.

Discipline

Any member causing a disturbance or who has been guilty of misconduct, or conduct unbecoming a gentleman, or of conduct which in the opinion of the Directors is detrimental to the character or interests of the Club on the Club premises may be denied the privileges of the Club and suspended or expelled at the discretion of the Directors.

General

An up-to-date list of all members is posted in the cloak room.

No gathering or demonstration of a partisan, political, sectarian or religious character will be permitted on the Club premises.

No letter of communication, or publication in any newspaper or on Club stationery shall be dated from the Club, or the address of the Club used for any advertisement whatsoever.
